SEQUACHEE, TENN., THURSDAY, MARCH 5, 1908.

NO. 85.

Tennessee College Notes.

MURFREESBORO, Tenn., March 3. (Special.)—Our physical culture department has been greatly augmented by the installation of a first-class high grade Bowling Alley. In addition to regular daily work in this department, Miss David has inaugurated a ten or fifteen minute exercise in the chapel during the study period in the evening; it is very popular and quite beneficial. We can soon begin outdoor work again.

The voice recital of Mrs. Geo. J. Burnett, our vocal teacher, on Jan. 31, was a decided success. This is only one of the many interesting, high class recitals we have given. We are soon to bring Mr. Cecil Fanning, the famous young baritone. Dr. Nant and Mr. Brown are to give a lecture recital at an early date. Our very large Music Department is greatly aided by these Artist Recitals.

The last monthly missionary address was delivered by Dr. J. S. Dill of Bowling Green, Ky. These meetings are proving very helpful and enjoyable. The next address will be delivered on March 6th by Rev. Geo. H. Crutcher of Dyersburg, Tenn. At the last meeting a letter was read from one of the missionaries in China.

The pupils in the literary department are offered splendid opportunities for display and development of their powers. The two societies, Rusk and Lanier, are doing good service and are now rejecting over their new homes. Then our magazine which is published quarterly, is edited and gotten up by the pupils under the direction of the English teacher. This is a very creditable production.

Chaffing dish parties are freely indulged in on Friday and Saturday evenings. The home life of the College is made as pleasant as possible for the young ladies, but the one aim in all the work is building of character. Thorough and painstaking work is done by all.

Our enrollment at present is 190, of these 131 are boarders. We have had many visitors of note during the year and have enjoyed their words of wisdom and instruction.

Is Candidate for Sheriff.

J. A. Jackson, of Comfort, Tenn., inserts his announcement for the office of high sheriff of Marion in this issue. We are not personally acquainted with Mr. Jackson and the lateness of the arrival of his announcement gives us little time to find out much about his character and standing. He was a candidate for the office once before and was a close second to the winner. He has never held office except that of deputy sheriff. He was born and raised in Marion county. We hope Mr. Jackson will come and see the News in making his canvass and get better acquainted. He is making the race on the republican ticket.

This is what Hon. Jake Moore, State Warden of Georgia, says of Kodol For Dyspepsia: "E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill.—Dear Sirs—I have suffered more than twenty years from indigestion. About eighteen months ago I had grown so much worse that I could not digest a crust of corn bread and could not retain anything on my stomach. I lost 25 lbs. in fact I made up my mind that I could not live but a short time, when a friend of mine recommended Kodol. I consented to try it to please him and I was better in one day. I now weigh more than I ever did in my life and am in better health than for many years. Kodol did it. I keep a bottle constantly, and write this hoping that humanity will be benefited. Yours very truly, Jake C. Moore, Atlanta, Aug. 10, 1904." Sold by J. W. Simpson, Jasper, Tenn.

Southern Steel Statistics.

A report of the condition of the Southern Steel Co., which is still in the courts in bankruptcy, shows the liabilities of the company to be $9,028,574.97, while the assets are only about $2,000,000. The liabilities are made up of bonded indebtedness, collateral security notes and accounts. The cost of improvements to plants was $867,315.00, of which nearly one-third was spent on the Chattanooga Iron & Coal Company property.

The report recommended the rehabilitation of the properties of the company, and designated the amounts necessary at each place, among them $10,000 for the improvement of the Chattanooga furnace to take about 60 days before being ready to blow in.

Ganderbone's March Forecast.

The idea of March will come again.
When Caesar's blood was let;
The foes of Bryan will hide out
Behind the parapet;

And when he sees them lurking there,
He'll guess their fell intent
And run just like his friends all hope
He'll run for President.

The candidates Republican will pass the stand again, and the portly form of Mr. Taft will show a handsome gain; the whiskerlets of Mr. Hughes will float upon the breeze, the fleet that sailed Magellan's Straits will cruise the western seas; the infant boom of Cortelyou will grimly yell the ghost, and the fleet will run the banquets on the other Latin coast.

Another lot of foreign counts, and basted sports and old, will come across to marry more of our dead easy gold; a count will marry a million cool, and a discount two or three, and gold and girl (and horse laugh loud) they'll all put out to sea; and while the Goulds give Boni one—just one—more chance, alack, we'll all steal off and kick ourselves quite low down on the back.

The country papers will get used
To Uncle Sam's mandate,
That they may not hold readers who
Are not paid up to date:

But the Government will not assist
At squaring things, somehow,
With old subscribers made so mad
They never will pay now.

March was the first month of the Roman year and was named from Mars, the god of war. Mars looked like a twin brother to Richard P. Hobson, and he was the regular Roman delegate to the Peace Conference at The Hague. He was supposed to be the father of Romulus, the founder of Rome, but he was not, he was only the young man's godfather. In ancient warfare it was customary to place a good bronze bust of Mars on the field and then fight for it.

The comedy of life will be about what it has been—the men will labor day and night, and the wives of men will spin. They'll have a club for every day, and never cease to go; they'll learn to talk of many themes their husbands do not know; they'll hear a lecturer from Greece, another on Japan, another on the Renaissance, and several on man; they'll hire a lot of long-haired freaks to make them erudite, they'll work on papers every morn and look up things at night; and their husbands will get supper cold and suffer ridicule—and the children will grow up like wolves, while Mam-ma goes to school.

The money indiscreetly loaned
Will faithfully keep Lent
And a lady teacher will sit on
The pin when it is bent;

But when the principal responds
To screams heard through the house,
She'll not tell him what happened, but
Will say she saw a mouse.

Until the 21st March will be under the influences of the zodiacal sign known as Pisces the Fish. Pisces will induce his relative, Styrenant Fish, to take the Illinois Central fight into the U. S. Supreme Court, where E. H. Harriman will be ditched with two bum lamps, a derailed backbone, and a swift kick in the caboose.

After the 21st, March will be under the influence of Aries, the sign of the Head. Under this sign, old heads will come to the front in the presidential race, and Uncle Joe Cannon will come out of last place and make the President put two more burrs in the spacious bosom of Mr. Taft's pants.

Persons born under Pisces drink like a fish and vote wet. They make excellent subordinates, like Friday and Loeb. They can say no, and it is futile to expose them to any more life insurance, for they won't take it. They are very cautious and always take seats near the fire escape.

Persons born under Aries always think before speaking and then never say anything. They are good organizers and generally belong to the Anti-Saloon League. They make good lawyers and generally get the case continued until they can elect the prosecuting attorney.

The Vernal Equinox will come, and the Irish will parade. The booming bull frog will resume. His music in the glade. The mole will burrow in the lawn. And the rash duck hunter toot. His caller while pneumonia drills. A leak hole in his boot.

And then the gentle spring will come and the poet will essay, with swelling breast and bliss, his bum and Muse attended lay: the rooster will announce the dawn, and the hen will scratch the dirt, and everybody will put on a thinner undershirt. The sassafras will brew again to tone the system rank, and the washout will upset the train and throw it down the bank; the gander and the goose will moult, the meadow will be wet, and the spring intoxicated colt will turn a summer-set. The house will be cleaned up again, the robins come in droves, and husbands will eat bread and cheese behind the kitchen stoves. The young man's heart will beat for love, and the widow in her weeds will find a man and seize him where Estella were the heads.

And then sweet April will return, and John D. get in line
And pay his month's installment on
That thirty million fine.
